Chapter 1 by kreig

Leo looks at his phone and suddely freezes in shock, the blood drains from his face and he goes to a pale white colour. He slowly places the phone into his pocket and sits onto the kitchen worktop processing what he has just read on his screen. A voice shouts from the parrell room "Leo, you alright?", it's his wife and he slowly stands up and begins to walk into the other room.

"What is it? What's wrong?" She asks nervously as he sits down besides her. Leo places his hands onto hers and looks her dead in the eye. He know's now what he has to do, it's suddenly all become clear to him the way foward like the sunrise breaking the night. "I have to tell you something, It's a secret. The biggest secret I will ever tell you and you have to promice never to tell a sole" "You're worrying me now Leo... what is it?!" "It's the best thing to ever happen to us, but it could also be the worst"

"We've just won £40 Million pounds on the lottery, we can't tell a sole or it will change everything." His wife's face lights up with joy a smile breaks from ear to ear and she begins to cry with happiness. She softly says "You had me worried, why such the big secret, lets celebrate!" Leo wraps his arms around her and she screams with delight as they embrace. Leo thinks to himself "How can I hide £40million, yet enjoy it? How can I keep all my friends and family without jealousy taking over"
